

1. About Us

Nzuko Ndi-Igbo Dundee was established in 2015 in Dundee Scotland. It is an association of 'Ndi-Igbo' or 'people of Igbo decent' and their relatives.

Aim:

To promote and foster togetherness, cultural awareness, co-operation, respect and unity among the members and families of Nzuko Ndi-Igbo Dundee, their host community and people of other nationalities.

Our Motto:

'Igwe bu Ike', or 'Unity is Strength'. This is rooted in our belief that unity and stability can only be achieved through a general sense of emotional, social, and psychological wellbeing.
